

Beaujon Receives Royal Netherlands Decoration

In a surprise ceremony in the governor's office April 28, the name of Jan H. Beaujon was added to the growing list of Aruba residents who hold Royal Netherlands decorations. Completely unaware of what was to take place, Mr. Beaujon was addressed by Lt. Gov. L. C. Kwartz, commended for his many years of community service, and made a Knight in the Order of Oranje-Nassau.

If ever a name was synonymous with Aruba it is Beaujon and particularly Jan H. Known throughout the island, he gained this recognition through his many activities, many of them aimed at the development of his homeland. In the course of years he has participated in innumerable functions proving always to be a steadfast, driving worker.

Recent activities include: member of the Netherlands Antillean Prince Bernhard Fund, Aruba Division; chairman of the Princess Wilhelmina Monument Committee; chairman of the Aruha Yuda Aruba Committee, and chairman of the Aruba Cultural Society.

He is perhaps best known for his leadership of the Caribe Club. He was first chairman and held this position for 17 consecutive years. Mr. Beaujon is also a member of the Guardianship Council and for 19 years has been secretary of the Church Council of the Protestant Community of Aruba. Past chairman of the Rotary Club of Aruha, he is still a member of this organization.

Aruba-born, Mr. Beaujon was once a teacher in the island school system. That was 1923. Later he was in charge of the office of the Fitzsimmons Drilling Company at Maracaibo from 1925 to 1929. From 1929 to 1931 he was employed as a secretary by the Lago Petroleum Corporation at Maracaibo. It was in 1931 that he returned to Aruba as a clerk in Stores Operation with Lago. Mr. Beaujon has held many positions during his 27 years at Lago. Presently he holds the title of Personnel Relations Assistant.

One of Mr. Beaujon's major contributions to Lago was the formation of the Lago Vocational School. One of the men who promoted the idea of training Aruba's young men in a company vocational school, Mr.

Beaujon in 1935 set up the school and became its first teacher.

Mr. Beaujon becomes the eleventh Lago employee to receive a royal Netherlands decoration. All of different degrees, the ten previous recipients are Capt. R. Rodger, L. G. Smith, J. J. Horigan, O. S. Mingus, R. V. Heinze, T. C. Brown, Dr. R. C. Carrell, G. E. Brook, Ralph Watson and B. E. Croes.

Completes 43 Years

L. G. Smith, Former Lago President, Retires

One of the men who selected Aruba as the site of what was to become the largest refinery in the world and who later went on to direct the operations of that refinery for 14 years retired April 30 as vice-president and a director of the Creole Petroleum Corp.

He was Lloyd G. Smith who joined the Standard Oil Co. (Indiana) in 1913 as a draftsman and went on to become a well-known refining expert and an authority on inter-American relations.

At the time of his retirement Mr. Smith was president of the Venezuelan Chamber of Commerce in the United States and a director of the Pan American Society of the United States and Bolivarian Society. He was also a trustee of the United Seamen's Service.

He will be succeeded in the Creole organization by Nicholas J. Campbell, Jr., who joined the company's legal department in New York in 1947.

Mr. Smith graduated from the University of Illinois as a mechanical engineer and immediately joined Standard of Indiana's refinery at Whiting, Ind. He had become combustion engineer and general foreman of the Light Oils Treating Department when he transferred in 1922 as general foreman of the Light Oils Cracking and Lube Departments at Indiana's Casper, Wyo., refinery.

He served in that position for five years and then transferred to the Pan American Petroleum and Transport Co. in New York as assistant manager of manufacturing in charge of the refinery then anticipated at Aruba and of five others then in operation.

In 1932 the Standard Oil Co. (N.J.) purchased Pan American's foreign properties and Mr. Smith transferred to Jersey Standard's New York of-

Legion Thanked By Queen Juliana

Her Majesty Queen Juliana of The Netherlands recently directed a note of appreciation to the Aruha post of the American Legion for the color transparencies sent her. The transparencies were of her visit last year to Aruba.

In the letter, sent by Baron van Heeckeren van Molecaten, her private secretary, it was stated that "Her Majesty greatly appreciated the kind gesture and very much enjoyed seeing the pictures which brought back to her those lovely scenes from her unforgettable visit to Aruba."

Mechanical, Process and IR Posts Filled; Others Named

In sweeping changes within the upper echelons of three of its seven departments, Lago announced the appointments of three new department heads. Fostered by transfers and executive development assignments, the May 2 announcement named G. Lewis MacNutt, Mechanical Department superintendent; Harold V. Locker, Process Department superintendent; and F. Clark Donovan, Industrial Relations Department manager.

Mr. MacNutt's promotion to Mechanical superintendent comes on the heels of a transfer to the Fawley (England) Refinery of Thomas V. Malcolm, who had been acting superintendent. Mr. MacNutt moves from the position of Process superintendent. Promoted into that position was Mr. Locker who is presently on a special assignment of long range refinery planning studies, and who will continue this assignment until its completion.

Coming from the Employee Relations Department of Standard Oil Co. (N.J.) to temporarily take over the helm of the Industrial Relations Department is Mr. Donovan. Presently overseas advisor in New York, Mr. Donovan's temporary assignment will begin July 1, replacing J. V. Friel. Mr. Friel will join the Employee Relations Department in New York on an executive development assignment and will act as an overseas advisor for about one year beginning September 1, following his furlough.

Further shuffles in the Mechanical Department brought about by the department-head change moved George E. Mathews into the position of Mechanical Division superintendent (Storehouse, Technical, Administration). He was promoted into the post formerly held by G. Ernesti who was named Mechanical Division superintendent (Field and Craft Coordination). This position is presently being filled by J. R. Proterra who will continue to do so during Mr. Ernesti's absence.

Effective May 1, three other promotions took place in the Process Department. W. H. Norris was promoted to the position of assistant division superintendent, Catalytic and Light ends; T. M. Binnion has permanently been transferred to the Process Department and promoted to the position of assistant division superintendent - Western Division; L. R. Monroe was promoted to Process foreman, Catalytic and Light Ends.

With Mr. Binnion's transfer to the Process Department, B. S. Whitney was promoted to the position of group head A - Physical and Chemical Analysis in the Laboratories Division of the Technical Service Department.

Mr. MacNutt has been with the company over 26 years. He started as a first class helper in the Pressure Stills in December, 1929. The new Process superintendent has over 21 years of service. His start with Lago came in November, 1935 in TSD as a technical student.

Mr. Donovan is not a newcomer to Lago or Aruba. The replacement IR manager started his Standard Oil Co. (N.J.) service in Aruba in April, 1938 as an apprentice operator in Light Oils Finishing. He moved over to Industrial Relations as a training assistant in 1938 and later switched to Mechanical Administration until his transfer to New York in April, 1943. Part of Mr. Donovan's service is with the Bayonne Refinery and the Standard-Vacuum Oil Co.

Mr. Mathews' entire Lago service of over 26½ years is in the Mechanical Department. He started in

Steele Heading Drive

Plans Being Developed For Aruba YMCA

Twenty-seven business and government leaders have joined in a unified movement to develop a Young Men's Christian Association for Aruba. The drive for an international youth organization here is being headed by Robert P. Steele, who was one of the founders of the YMCA in Venezuela.

The 27 community leaders, being referred to as a Provisional Committee, consist of Dr. L. C. Kwartzs, J. J. Arrindell, E. A. Bailey, Jan H. Beanjon, Gilbert E. Brook, Dr. Russell C. Carrell, Wilham D. Casey, W. J. Dinissen, Ronald H. Eagle, Gottfried Eman, Sigurd Espeland, Rev. Donald R. Evans, Wonk Kit Hong, George Laviest, Odis S. Mingus, Henry M. Nasse, J. J. P. Oduber, Dr. Virgil K. Reeves, N. G. Schild, G. J. Schouten, Jr., Joseph M. Silverberg, B. Teagle, Aart In 't Veld, M. Viani, H. C. Willemsen, Pieter Wurtz and Mr. Steele.

These men, along with a large group of community- and youth-minded persons, met April 27 at the Reception Center where they were addressed by Dr. Guillermo Tovar, vice-president and member of the board of directors of the 4000-member Caracas YMCA, and Clair Johnson, YMCA international secretary.

Inasmuch as the idea of YMCA in Aruba is new, Dr. Tovar told the group how it works, what it means. He explained the organization "is a christian association of young men and not an association of Christian young men." By making this statement he explained that the movement is completely non-secretarian, open to young men of all faiths and not just those who by religious selection follow Christian philosophy and understanding.

Also on the program explaining the function of the YMCA was Mr. Johnson, who, like Dr. Tovar, explained some of the specifics of the YMCA organization.

Mr. Steele reported that during his visit to Caracas last month to join in the celebration of the Venezuelan YMCA's 10th anniversary, that branch of the international organization promised cooperation and help in setting up the Aruba counterpart.

Major Veenhuys

Major Veenhuys came to Aruba Jan. 7, 1954 from Curacao, where he was in command briefly after having put in a stint as marine commander in Surinam. The Savaneta ex-commander joined the marines in December, 1940 during the mobilization of the East Indies. A year later he was appointed lieutenant, the rank he carried into the March, 1942 East Java campaigns. It was during these campaigns that he was taken prisoner. Imprisoned in Singapore, Manila, Hanchu and Korea, he was finally freed and put in charge of transportation arrangements for Allies peoples who had been in Japanese prison camps. He later served in Holland, then saw action in Indonesia. He took command in Surinam in 1952.

Five School Records Fall In 8th Lago Track Meet

Five school records were broken and a sixth was tied last month when the Lago Community High School staged its eighth annual Track and Field Meet at Lone Palm Stadium.

Three contestants finished first in 10 of the 12 meet events and accounted for four of the five new marks. They were "Butch" Hudson who was named "Outstanding Athlete" at the meet, set one record and won four events; William Johnson who set two new records in the three events he won and Larry Riggs who established one new standard in winning three events.

Hudson won the hop-step-jump with a record-breaking 38', took the 100-yard-dash in: 10.8 to tie the existing record; went 17', 7 1/2" to win the running broad jump and zipped in first in the

220-yard-dash in: 27.1

Johnson cracked the mark in the 880-yard-run which he finished in 2:21.4; cleared 5', 9 1/2" to set a new standard in the high jump and won the pole vault with a 9'6" effort

Riggs established a new record when he hurled the javelin 157', 1 1/2"; scaled the discus 105', 11 3/4" for first place in that event and putt the shot a winning 36', 11".

Kyle Spitzer set the other record. He sped through the 440-yard-dash in: 61.7 while Brad Wease won the mile in 5:46.4. Spitzer finished second in the 100-yard-dash, high jump and pole vault.

In addition to the "Outstanding Athlete" award given Hudson, Johnson and Riggs received second place awards.

Aruba-Canada Ties Renewed

The Canadian Navy is one of the bulwarks of Western Hemisphere defense. It maintains its top efficiency through continual training. The two Canadian Navy destroyers that called here last month were bound home to British Columbia after a rigorous training assignment with the United States Navy in the Atlantic Ocean.

Aruba appreciates the contribution Canada and its navy makes to the island's security and, as a means of expressing its appreciation, went all out in entertaining the officers and crews of the H.M.C.S. Crescent and Cayuga. In return the ships entertained various island residents during the first official visit of a Canadian man-of-war to Aruba since the end of World War II.

The island's entertainment program ranged from formal receptions to picnics and lasted for five days. When the ships sailed April 16 they shared with their recent hosts a newly-refurbished feeling of friendship and respect
